Press Release

October 2016

interpack to host Global Flexible Packaging Executive Forum

The second Global Flexible Packaging Executive Forum will take place at interpack on 5 May 2017. Following the success of the first Forum, which attracted more than 90 executives from 60 companies, the organiser Flexible Packaging Europe (FPE) has announced the business breakfast event for flexible packaging manufacturers, would again be hosted by Messe Düsseldorf, during the world's biggest packaging exhibition.

The Forum provides an opportunity for executives from flexible packaging companies worldwide to exchange ideas and discuss innovation, new technologies, trends and the challenges facing the industry while networking with other leading decision makers in the sector.

Co-sponsored by Henkel and Siegwerk, the Global Flexible Packaging Executive Forum is an invitation-only event. Those flexible packaging manufacturers interested in participating should contact the FPE Secretariat (enquiries@flexpack-europe.org).

Flexible Packaging Europe's (FPE) members manufacture all types of flexible packaging. FPE comprises more than 70 small and medium sized companies as well as the major European producers of flexible packaging for all materials. These companies cover more than 80% of the European flexible packaging turnover. Also six national flexible packaging associations are members of FPE ensuring consistency between national and European activities and lobbying.
